

Author-In-The-Classroom

CONCEPT:

The Author-In-the-Classroom program offers an opportunity for children in schools to engage with a real-life author of novels and children's stories.

COMMITMENT/QUALIFICATION:

Paul Toffanello is a lifelong educator and researcher with expertise in engaging students in reading & writing skill-building through strategies that enhance student learning. These strategies inspire and encourage children to read and write with enthusiasm.

STRATEGY/OPPORTUNITIES:

The author would employ one or more of the following strategies/activities when engaging with students and teachers, influenced and determined by the school's Principal:

- Classroom presentation/ interaction & engagement with students/teacher
- Large group divisional presentation/interaction (junior/intermediate/and/or senior)
- Student workshops on developing writing skills, ideas, short stories and novels
- Teacher workshops* including but not exclusive to:
 - The Reading Workshop
 - The Writing Process
- Separate cost for teacher workshop – usually held outside of classroom time

COST(S) FOR AUTHOR-IN-THE-CLASSROOM:

See: Presentation Costing

Illustrations from Paul's upcoming children's book: In Blackburn Hamlet©